Workshop Facilitator

Employment type	Casual
Location	Magandjin, Brisbane
Start date	February, 2027

The position

Elephant Ed are looking for charismatic, energetic, and passionate Workshop Facilitators to join our growing team.

Elephant Ed takes a youth-centred delivery model, tackling the big issues in a fun and accessible way. At the heart of this role, is the ability to adapt to diverse classroom environments, create safe spaces, connect authentically with young people and have fun whilst doing so!

This position demands a candidate who is excited about the opportunity to create generational change, and empower young people across the state to make informed, positive and safe decisions.

A bit about us

Since 2015, Elephant Ed has been transforming the way sex education is taught across Australia. We work with students, universities, educators, parents and community groups to facilitate interactive, informative and inclusive sex education workshops.

Our workshops are evidence based, comprehensive and embraces all young people, regardless of their gender, sexuality or background.

In a nutshell

- Facilitate interactive workshops through open discussion, engaging activities and stimulated learning.
- Travel across Brisbane, the Gold Coast, the Sunshine Coast and surrounding areas to deliver workshops in schools.
- Opportunities to travel interstate where relevant.
- Partake in ongoing training and professional development.
- Represent Elephant Ed's core values: Inclusivity, Growth, Education and Passion on a daily basis.

You are...

- Comfortable talking about relationships and sexual activity in an educational way
- Passionate about young people having access to a holistic sex education
- Confident in public speaking
- Experienced working with diverse groups
- Passionate about sexual violence prevention
- Aware of internal biases and privilege, with demonstrated ability to be culturally sensitive and inclusive

This is your chance to empower tens of thousands of young people to make informed, positive and safe decisions about sexuality, relationships and growing up. Because sex education is more than just condoms on bananas...

Key Selection Criteria

- 18+ years old
- Current Australian drivers' license and daily access to a car
- Valid Working With Children Check (or willingness to obtain one)
- Comfortable public speaking and ability to facilitate to large groups
- Passion for working directly with young people and students
- Confident, energetic and charismatic
- Experience working with diverse groups across gender, sexuality, race and ability (desired)

Oh, and you'll also get...

- Ongoing training and professional development
- Access to full support of a wider team
- To join a passionate team working together towards a common goal
- To engage in meaningful work helping to impact tens of thousands of young people each year
- Access to an internal Employee Assistance Program to support your mental and emotional wellbeing
