

United Services Union

ORGANISER WOLLONGONG NSW

The Union is seeking to employ an Organiser for Wollongong Office. The position requires that the successful applicant must reside within a maximum one hour's drive of the office or be willing to relocate.

The position requires the ability to attend to the needs of the membership in all industry sectors covered by the Union, including Local Government and the Clerical and Administrative Sector.

You will be required to develop and implement organising plans, this includes developing, educating and supporting workplace delegates and activists, increasing levels of membership and activism, including the direct recruitment of new members and assisting the effective operation and projects of delegates' committees, identify organising opportunities in the workplace and assist members and delegates in the handling of such issues. Assist members and delegates in the development and negotiation of enterprise/workplace agreements. Contribute to campaign and operations of the USU. Able to work with members to develop and implement union policy objectives and be able to do some advocacy.

A vehicle is supplied as a tool of trade.

Salary range is from grade 3 level 1 $79,113 pa (plus superannuation) to grade 3 level 5 $90,368 pa (plus superannuation).

Interested candidates must provide introduction letter, resume and written response to each selection criteria (persons not completing selection criteria will not be considered). To obtain a copy of position description, please visit our website: www.usu.org.au or contact Emily on 9265 8211.

Applications to: Human Resources Officer hrofficer@usu.org.au no later than 4:00pm Friday 22 February 2019.