

Therapeutic Intervention Practitioner – Strength 2 Strength

- Part-time, 0.8 FTE
- Frankston

Around the world the Good Shepherd network is working to create just and equal communities where women and girls can live full, safe lives. We have been committed to our mission for nearly 200 years, working strongly for social change. All of our services are informed by the latest evidence and research and adopt a best practice approach. We are committed to continuous improvement, innovation and delivering measurable outcomes.

Good Shepherd Australia New Zealand [GSANZ] is an equal opportunity employer dedicated to staff wellbeing. We offer a supportive work environment, ongoing professional development for staff and a competitive remuneration package. We encourage flexible working arrangements and provide access to salary packaging.

About the role

Based at Family Life in Frankston with a multi-agency, multidisciplinary team of practitioners, this role will work flexibly across a range of service delivery sites in accordance with accountability and compliance standards, including the provision of outreach support to ensure service accessibility.

To be successful in this role you will need:

- Tertiary qualifications in Social Work, Counselling, Psychology or related tertiary discipline and experience in delivering therapeutic interventions for victims of Family Violence
- Eligibility for membership to an appropriate professional association
- Demonstrated experience in the provision of assessment and therapeutic interventions
- Ability to develop and implement trauma informed approaches to practice
- Experience in responding to various presentations of victims of family violence
- Must have current Australian driver's license
- A satisfactory Police Check
- A current Working with Children's Check (WWCC)

For full list of qualification, experience and requirements please view the position description on our website.

To find out more about the role and the work of Good Shepherd please explore our website:

www.goodshepherd.com.au.

How to apply

To apply please review the attached position description and submit a short covering letter outlining your relevant skills and experience along with your CV to recruitment@goodshep.org.au. Personal data held by Good Shepherd Australia New Zealand relating to employment applications will be used in accordance with our Privacy Statement, which is available on our website.

Please apply as soon as possible, applications are considered as they are received.

We recognise the rich diversity of people across Australia. We are committed to ensuring that our team is reflective of the diverse community we serve and to supporting a culture of equity, inclusion and diversity.

Good Shepherd Australia New Zealand is a Child Safe employer. Employment is subject to satisfactory referee checks, a current employment working with Children Check, National Criminal History check and proof of the right to work in Australia.