Organisational Context

Women's Health West (WHW) is the women's health service for the western metropolitan region of Melbourne. We focus on supporting women and their children to lead safe and healthy lives and on changing the conditions that cause and maintain inequity and injustice. We do this through two main complementary programs. Our health promotion program plans and implements activities designed to promote women's health, safety and wellbeing across the areas of sexual and reproductive health, mental health and the prevention of violence and discrimination. Our integrated family violence service provides a range of programs to women and children who experience family violence including court support, crisis housing and case management. We also provide services designed to promote healing and recovery such as women's and children's counselling. We work collaboratively with communities, government and local agencies to influence public policy or change legislation, to improve access to services and resources and to build individual, community and organisational capacity to improve the status of women. WHW is funded by local, state and federal government grants, and receives additional funding from benevolent trusts and philanthropic organisations.

Position Purpose

The senior receptionist/administrator is a member of the business operations team at WHW and reports to the administration and quality team leader. The focus of the role is to provide a professional and responsive reception service to staff, visitors, clients and community members, including women experiencing a family violence crisis. The position also provides an administrative support function for WHW staff. The senior receptionist offers the first point of contact in a triage response for current and potential clients, requiring a skilled, boundaried and empathic focus on determining risk and eligibility for services. The position works closely with WHW's integrated family violence staff in this triage role, and is expected to develop and maintain productive and collaborative relationships with all WHW staff, clients and visitors, to contribute to positive program outcomes and enhance WHW's reputation for warm and responsive service delivery. The senior receptionist/administrator also contribute to the development and achievement of team and organisation goals and actively promotes the development of a positive organisational and workplace culture in line with the principles of the organisation and the expectations of WHW's strategic plan.
