Professional Officer

This position is designed for a Registered Nurse who is passionate for industry advocacy, workforce development, program networking, and project management. Your vision will be to strengthen resources and pipelines to support health professionals in engaging in rural and / or remote communities.

We are seeking an experienced Registered Nurse (+/- Midwifery Registration) who has a passion to:

- Research and promote rural and remote workforce pipelines that support workforce recruitment and development initiatives.
- Build and maintain a national resource that serves as a central repository linking to all nursing and midwifery recruitment and networking initiatives, programs, and incentives.
- Supporting and driving engagement with the National Rural Health Student Network (NRHSN) and various university rural health student clubs.
- Author or curate clinical articles or updates for the CRANApplus Magazine edition.
- Develop a proposal for a clinical development stream for the 2021 CRANApplus conference.
- Contribute to the development of on-line or e-resources for CRANApplus members and wider community stakeholders.
- Participate in the delivery of professional development workshops, as required, to remote workforces.
- Contribute professional knowledge and experience to a range of projects and priorities engaged by the Office of the Chief Operating Officer including contribution to the development of consultation papers and position statements.
- Operational management of the LINKS Mentoring Program including a comprehensive review of the program, marketing, monitoring, reporting and evaluation.

Think this might be the job for you?

We love passion, creativity, innovation, and hard work, and a professional who is flexible and resilient. You will be working in a supportive and professional team spread throughout Australia!

We are interested to learn of your knowledge in the following key areas:

- Nursing/midwifery experience; your areas of interest and expertise
- understanding of the issues impacting health workforce recruitment and retention in rural and remote Australia
- projects you have been involved in scoping, implementing, coordinating, or evaluating
- involvement in workforce development projects, research, program or industry innovations, or creative ideas to improve practices

To submit your application, please email your resume and cover letter to Katherine Leary via leary.consultancy@gmail.com, outlining your alignment to CRANAplus and the above mentioned areas of interest.

This position will close as of 5pm, 2 August 2020, however please do not delay in applying, as conversations will commence with eligible candidates as soon as possible.

CRANAplus advocates for, and serves, a diverse Australia, and we genuinely encourage applications from CALD backgrounds and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island people.

We thank you for your time and consideration, and look forward to future discussions.

CRANAplus acknowledges the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples as the traditional custodians of Australia, many of whom live in remote areas, and we pay our respects to their Elders both past and present.
