

Position Description

Position Title: Project Worker

Lived experience intellectual disability

Position Aim: To empower and improve the lives of people with disability through implementing a range of inclusion activities.

Reports to: Manager Inclusion Projects

Direct Reports: Nil

Key Relationships: Internal – Managers, Members and other staff.

External – People with disability and families/carers and supporters, community members, community service providers.

Award Placement: Level 4 - Social, Community, Home Care and Disability Services (SCHADS) Award.

Position Status: Casual, Part time or Full time

Hours of Work: Flexible between office hours 8am – 6pm

Position Location: Surry Hills, Sydney or other locations across NSW

Conditions of Employment: Salary packaging available.

Employer superannuation contribution is 9.5%.

Appointment is contingent on a satisfactory Police Record Check and Working with Children Check.

About Council for Intellectual Disability (CID)

CID is a peak body representing the rights and interests of people with intellectual disability in NSW.

CID undertakes advocacy, information provision and projects that advance the rights of people with intellectual disability.

Role Responsibilities

- Work with other staff members to promote the inclusion of people with disability.
- Deliver training sessions for people with intellectual disability.
- Contribute to the development of resources and workshops for and with people with disability.
- Build effective networks.
- Develop positive relationships with other CID team members.
- Support the participation of people with intellectual disability into CID's work.

Essential Selection Criteria – Skills & Experience

- Commitment to the human rights of people with disability and the principles of participation and inclusion.
- Lived experience of intellectual disability.
- Good organisation and time management skills.
- Demonstrated understanding of the importance of supporting people to speak for themselves.
- Willingness to travel within New South Wales.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and people with disability or living with mental illness are strongly encouraged to apply.

Signed by CID Representative	Signed by Employee
Signature:	Signature:
Date:	Date: