Organisational Context

Women's Health West (WHW) is the women's health service for the western metropolitan region of Melbourne. We focus on supporting victim/survivors and their children to lead safe and healthy lives and on changing the conditions that cause and maintain inequity and injustice. We do this through two main complementary programs. Our health promotion program plans and implements activities designed to promote women's health, safety and wellbeing across the areas of sexual and reproductive health, mental health and the prevention of violence and discrimination. Our integrated family violence service provides a range of programs to victim/survivors and children who experience family violence, including court support, crisis housing and case management. We also provide services designed to promote healing and recovery such as victim/survivors and children's counselling. We work collaboratively with communities, government and local agencies to influence public policy or change legislation, to improve access to services and resources, and to build individual, community and organisational capacity to improve the status of women. WHW is funded by local, state and federal government grants, and receives additional funding from benevolent trusts and philanthropic organisations.

Position Purpose

The administrative support worker reports to and is responsible for providing administrative and clerical support to the director of integrated family violence services. The worker also supports family violence managers with tasks from time to time as required, including gathering data, case studies and administration. They also work closely with the executive assistant to the CEO in coordinating meetings and other tasks appropriate to this role. Using excellent interpersonal and organisational skills, this position is responsible for managing telephone and video calls, correspondence, filing systems and assisting in diary management. The administrative support worker also supports the director to coordinate and participate in a wide range of meetings. This role, therefore, involves liaison with a diverse range of people, including WHW staff, representatives from government departments, peak bodies and not-for-profit organisations. The ability to manage competing demands and to prioritise tasks and workloads is a requirement of this role. This position is expected to contribute to a culture of collective learning and collaborative work practices, including respectful and positive communication within the team and organisation.
