

Business Development & Relationships Manager

- Position Description -

About Us

EthicalJobs.com.au is working to change the world, one job at a time.

We bridge the gap between Australians who want to “work for a better world” and the thousands of not-for-profit organisations that tirelessly strive to create that better world.

As a for-profit social enterprise and one of Australia’s top job-search sites for the not-for-profit sector and beyond, we support the work of more than 6,000 organisations around the country, and have a passionate community of 260,000+ unique users visiting the site each month. And we’re growing!

We also run the annual Not-For-Profit People Conference. Now in its eighth year, it’s Australia’s largest event focused on how to attract, manage, train and retain the best people for the NFP sector, attracting ~500 attendees.

You’ll be joining a dedicated, passionate and successful team of 24 people who share a vision of a more equitable, just and sustainable world.

When we’re not working from home (as we are right now) our spacious office is just off Smith St in Collingwood, including a large outdoor deck for lunch in the sun and drinks after work, and great food and coffee just around the corner.

About the role

As a key member of our passionate and successful Relationships Team, you’ll be part of a group who are committed to helping a diverse range of Australian NFPs and social enterprises find amazing staff and volunteers, so they can change the world more effectively.

You’ll be responsible for strengthening and broadening our ongoing relationships with hundreds of regular advertisers nationally, as well as initiating and developing relationships with organisations that don’t currently advertise on EthicalJobs.com.au.

Your work will be primarily phone and email based, but you will also travel interstate to meet with top clients at least quarterly.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Maintaining and strengthen relationships with EthicalJobs.com.au’s current advertisers – who are mostly HR and recruitment professionals
- Initiating and developing new relationships with employers, primarily in the not-for-profit sector
- Growing job numbers on the site from employers on your client list
- Contributing to ongoing development of sales team processes and materials
- Regularly reporting back on progress with clients
- Contributing to periodic strategic planning of business development activities
- Maintaining our CRM database

4. Curiosity, hunger to learn and interest in the recruitment challenges of our clients
5. A positive, energetic and proactive attitude
6. Demonstrated resilience and perseverance
7. Strong organisational skills, attention to detail and process-orientation
8. Demonstrated passion and commitment to "working for a better world"

- Knowledge of recruitment and broader HR processes

Hours: Full-time, but with an option to work 0.9

Reports to: Business Development and Relationship Management Team Lead

Direct Reports: None

Salary: A competitive salary will be negotiated with the successful candidate, dependent on experience.

What do you get beyond a great remuneration package?

We're all currently working remotely, but once restrictions ease, you'll get:

- In-house massage-therapist – visits every 2 weeks to give everyone a 15 minute massage
