

POSITION TITLE: Board members (multiple positions), Australian Marine Conservation Society (AMCS)

POSITION TYPE: Voluntary

LOCATION: Nationwide. AMCS has its headquarters in Brisbane, and offices in Sydney, Melbourne, Perth and Darwin

AMCS is seeking a number of inspired Board members, passionate about marine conservation and ready to play a critical role in the fight to protect our oceans. AMCS has undergone an exciting period of unprecedented growth and remarkable impact, but the world's oceans are under threat like never before.

As a member of a highly committed National Management Committee - the 'Board', you will have an opportunity to influence strategy and provide sound governance to this important organisation. AMCS is seeking applicants with a broad range of skills and a passion for our oceans.

The board meets six times per year, as well as holding a national face-to-face strategy weekend, with members also encouraged to join a sub-committee and attend relevant events. Opportunities also exist to provide support and mentoring to a highly engaged and high performing executive team. This role is voluntary, however approved expenses are reimbursed.

Candidates with NFP or commercial board experience are encouraged to apply, as are candidates with specific experience in fundraising, advocacy, finance, law or technology.

AMCS is a strictly non-partisan and equal opportunities employer.
AMCS is committed to a diverse board and workforce.
Candidates from anywhere in Australia are welcome to apply.

If you are ready for a new challenge and believe you have the commitment and experience to succeed in this important role, please email your CV and a letter detailing your relevant experience to recruitment@amcs.org.au

Please submit applications by 9am (AEST), Tuesday 6th October 2020 by email with the subject Application: AMCS Board 2020.
