About CARE Australia

CARE is an international humanitarian aid organisation fighting global poverty, with a special focus on working with women and girls to bring lasting change to their communities. As a non-religious and non-political organisation, CARE works with communities to help overcome poverty by supporting development projects and providing emergency relief. We know that supporting women and girls is one of the most effective ways to create sustainable outcomes in poor communities. We depend on support from the Australian public to carry out our work.

CARE Australia is a member of the CARE International confederation. We strive for a world of hope, tolerance and social justice, where poverty has been overcome and people live in dignity and security.

For over 30 years, CARE Australia has earned an international reputation for our ability to respond quickly to emergency situations in countries where CARE International operates, including Syria, Pakistan, South Sudan, Myanmar and Vanuatu. We are also renowned for our innovative, sustainable and effective long-term development projects. All our projects are designed to equip the people we support with skills and resources so they can take charge of their lives and work towards a better future.

CARE Australia (CA) is directly responsible for program design, implementation, monitoring and evaluation, as well as management and contractual control of all projects. As a consequence, we have a high degree of accountability and transparency. CARE Australia is committed to protecting the rights of children in all areas we work around the world.

About the Department

CA's Fundraising & Marketing Department is collectively responsible for ensuring the organisation maintains a visible, engaging presence in the community, and our profile is leveraged to garner financial and other support from the Australian public.

About the Role

The Data & Platform Performance team is responsible for managing the ecosystem and delivery of fit for purpose solutions for the management of supporter data and all online customer experiences.

The data analyst is a newly created role which presents the opportunity to influence, shape and own the implementation of our insights and analytics capabilities. This role is

- Research and analyse donor behavioural and revenue data, to provide business improvement insights;
- Educate and advise management on the business application of insights from reports and dashboards;
- Optimise, design and execute continuous process improvements for data generation, management and usage to drive strategic decision making;
- Deliver timely, high-quality outcomes and deliverables against key work priorities as defined by the Senior Manager - Data. (e.g. Campaign data, A/B testing, Targeting & Segmentation, Ad-hoc reporting, etc.);
- Support and document the ongoing development, maintenance and synchronisation of our databases, and the transformation of data into information products;
- Drive the development of and own our data analytics capability;
- Ensure the integrity of our data with regular cleaning & analysis, recommending and implementing initiatives to increase ongoing accuracy of all master data records and other ad hoc duties as required;
- Play an active role in a range of other operational and strategic projects including the migration of our data to a new CRM.

Selection Criteria

- Tertiary qualification in Business, Mathematics, Computer Science or Economics;
- Minimum of three years' experience working with data assets with the purpose of delivering insight (ideally within a service organisation and/or NGO);
- Ability to translate business requirements into powerful insights and insights into business recommendations;
- Ability to analyse large data sets and translate into business insights;
- Previous experience working with complex data sets, and a knowledge of database management best practices and methodologies;
- Hands-on knowledge and experience of tools and techniques for data manipulation, cleansing, analysis and visualisation including expert-level knowledge of MS Excel, SQL, Python and BI tools;
- Ability to effectively communicate to all stakeholders (including non-technical) and provide ideas to solve problems;
- You are analytical and inquisitive with a continuous improvement mindset and genuine interest and passion to learn and develop new skills;

- Experience of data governance and building data models (preferred);
- Experience with data warehouse and ETL processes, integrating systems via APIs and data feeds (preferred).

CARE Australia Terms and Conditions for Australian-based staff

Title	Data & Insight Analyst
Department:	Fundraising & Marketing
Salary Package:	CARE Band 5 ($77,719 - $93,219)

The total full-time equivalent annual remuneration package is as follows (all figures in Australian Dollars):

Base Salary:	$77,719 (which includes a Fringe Benefits component of $15,900)
9.5% Superannuation:	$7,383
Total Package:	$85,102

This is a part-time role, working 22.5 hours per week. The successful candidate will be paid a salary package calculated at 0.6 of the full-time equivalent (FTE) detailed above.

Salary packaging

We offer salary packaging options to all Australian-based employees.

Salary packaging can reduce your income tax by allowing you to pay for certain expenses with pre-tax dollars. You have the option to salary package your mortgage, rent, rates, loans, school fees, and more.

This packaging arrangement means the base salary has a higher overall commercial value. To understand how this could impact on you, you may wish to seek independent financial advice. Full details will be given to short-listed candidates if requested.

Employment details: This part-time, permanent job is subject to three months' probation. All entitlements are set out in the CA Contract of Employment. Full employment conditions are set out in the CA Human Resource Policy Manual.

Working Hours: This role works 22.5 hours per week which is 0.6 of a full-time employee who works 37.5 hours per week. The exact roster for days and times worked will be negotiated with the successful candidate.

Please Note: CA's salary structure is based on eight Bands and five salary points within each band. It is usual for people commencing with CA to be placed on Point One of the relevant band with further progression through the bands related to the ongoing performance appraisal process. The Salary Package listed in this document is Point One for the relevant salary band.

Right to work in Australia for international applicants

CA is not in a position to sponsor entry to Australia. In applying for an Australian-based position you will be expected to already have a valid Australian work permit (permanent residency or applicable work visa). Information on Australian visas and working entitlements are available from the Australian Government Department of Home Affairs.

Child Protection and Protection from Sexual Harassment, Exploitation and Abuse

We are committed to each other and to the protection of the people we serve. We do not tolerate sexual misconduct within or external to our organisation, and we embed child protection in all we do. Child protection and protection from sexual harassment, exploitation and abuse, are fundamental to our relationships, including employment, and our recruitment practices are designed to ensure we only recruit people who are suitable to work with other staff and the people we serve. As well as pre-employment checks including police checks and background checks, we will use the recruitment and reference process to ensure potential new staff understand and are aligned with these expectations.

CA reserves the right to seek information from a job applicant's previous employer about the applicant's suitability for the role. Any allegations relating to sexual exploitation, sexual abuse and/or sexual harassment and/or child abuse, which may or may not have been proven against the applicant, will be relevant information.

By submitting an application, the job applicant confirms that s/he has no objection to CA requesting the information specified above.

To find out more, please contact the Manager - Human Resources.

Gender, diversity and inclusion

CA respects and values diversity, and does not discriminate on the basis of race, gender, ethnicity, age, disability, religion or politics. We are committed to embedding gender equality, diversity and inclusion throughout our organisational practices and in the programs we deliver. This commitment is reflected in all of our processes and policies, including recruitment and selection.

Our selection decisions embody transparency and fairness from the outset of a recruitment process through to the selection decision. This is demonstrated through advertising roles as broadly as possible and basing the selection of the successful applicant on merit. We endeavour to mitigate any potential bias in our selection committee shortlisting processes by ensuring all selection committees are gender balanced and independent.

To ensure all candidates can compete on an equal basis in the application and interview process, CARE will provide reasonable accommodations for assistance where requested. If you have any requirements that need to be considered as part of your application process, please do not hesitate to let us know.

The recruitment process and expected timeframes

CA appreciates the time and effort taken to apply for a position with us. We are committed to ensuring all recruitment processes are fair, efficient and transparent and we are committed to equal opportunity and diversity in the workplace. Below is some information on how our recruitment processes generally work and expected timeframes:

- All vacant positions are advertised on our website;
- Unless otherwise stated, roles are advertised for a minimum of 2 weeks;
- We aim to complete the short-listing process within 2-4 weeks following the close date of applications;
- Selection committee interviews are held for a select number of candidates either face-to-face or via the telephone, ideally within a month following the application close date;
- Additional background checks may be required prior to the interview such as Right to Work and Working Visas;
- Referee checking of the preferred candidates happens in the week following interviews. Referees will not be contacted without prior permission; and
- An Offer of Employment will ideally be made within a week of interviews.

Tips on how to prepare your application

Your application is the first step towards a rewarding career with CA and our first impression of you. Therefore, it is important that you give yourself the strongest opportunity to succeed right from the beginning.

To improve your chances of selection we recommended that you:

- Thoroughly research CA, including our organisational goals, values, mission and vision;
- Carefully read the Position Description and ensure you understand the role you are applying for and that it is suited to your skills, experience and qualifications;
- Carefully read the Terms and Conditions and check whether you are eligible to apply, and that the salary and entitlements match your expectations; and
- If you wish to discuss the position, the selection process and the work environment, please phone the contact officer outlined in the candidate information pack.

To ensure an informed assessment of your suitability and claims for the position is conducted it is recommended that you complete all parts in the application process.

Tips on how to prepare a CV

Your CV is one of the most useful tools in demonstrating your suitability for a role. When preparing your CV it is important to remember the following:

- Keep it simple and succinct, we recommend approximately 2-4 pages;
- List your relevant work experience in chronological order, starting from your current or most recent role;
- Do not just outline each position and employer, be sure to include your responsibilities and achievements in each position;
- Ensure relevant personal information is provided such as your name, contact number, address and email address as well as any period where you might be uncontactable;
- List your qualifications and the institute from which you received them;
- List at least 2 professional referees, their current role, contact details and their relationship with you. Friends and associates are not suitable as referees;
- Explain any gaps in your career (travel, having a family etc);
- Outline any relevant volunteering experience;
- Do not use abbreviations, slang or jargon; and
- There is no need to insert pictures or graphics, or attach any certificates or referee reports.

Why work for us?

CA is one of Australia's largest international aid and development agencies. By working for CA, you will make a direct contribution to the ongoing fight to address global poverty. As an organisation that pursues best practice in the work we do, we seek to support our staff through offering a comprehensive package of salary and benefits to complement and enhance your work with us.

Here is a brief list of some of the benefits available to CA staff. Note that outside of Australia, some benefits may vary from country to country to take into account local needs and differences.

Workplace diversity and flexibility

As part of our commitment to Gender Equity and Diversity, we recognise that our staff may need the flexibility to manage their life outside of the office. At CA, we have a range of creative solutions that may be negotiated where possible, on a case-by-case basis, to help you balance work with life. Examples include alternative or reduced hours or job-sharing arrangements.

Performance management

Our performance management framework helps you work closely with your manager to plan, manage, review and give feedback about your performance throughout the year, leading to a salary review based on your continuous improvement. Teamwork is part of our culture and we provide training to our staff and managers in communication and decision-making skills to ensure we remain engaged with the work we do.

Leave entitlements

CA employees have access to standard annual and personal leave and additional leave in recognition of long service. We have paid parental leave, and for eligible staff on overseas postings, we offer rest and rehabilitation leave and annual home leave in recognition of difficult working conditions.

Professional development

Our employees are amongst the best in their fields, and if an opportunity exists to help you continue to build your professional skills and prepare for future aspirations, our Professional Development opportunities will help you do just that. Ongoing staff who have been with us for longer than 12 months have the chance to apply for our Study Support scheme – helping you with reimbursements towards gaining a formal tertiary qualification.

Employee Assistance Program

Our company-paid Employee Assistance Program provides support to our staff and their immediate family members through a free counselling service where any work or personal issues can be discussed confidentially.

Please note, this represents just a small selection of the benefits available to CA staff and does not constitute a legally binding document. Entitlements and other development opportunities are often subject to a qualifying period.

Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to CA. Please read this carefully as it describes how we handle your personal information.

CA is committed to protecting and securing the privacy and confidentiality of your personal information. If at any point you want to know more about our policy, or are worried about your own details, or have ideas on how we can improve our practices, please let us know via jobs@care.org.au.

Importantly, CA is bound by the Privacy Act 1998 (Cth) and the privacy provisions of other applicable legislation. In particular, CA must adhere to the Australian Privacy Principles in relation to collecting, holding, using, disclosing, securing and allowing access to your personal information.

We may revise this privacy policy from time to time by publishing a revised version on our website. That revised version takes effect from the time it is published.

Collection of personal information

CA collects and uses personal information about you in relation to your application for employment or volunteer/intern engagements with CA.

Your information is collected from you at the time you complete your application for employment or volunteer/intern engagement through our recruitment system. From time to time we may obtain personal information from third parties such as referee reports. When we do so, we will take reasonable steps to ensure that we make you aware of the collection of your information in accordance with Australian privacy law.

'Personal information' simply put is any information or opinion that can identify or be used to identify you.

During our recruitment process, CA may conduct some or all of the following pre-employment screening checks:

- Confirmation of qualification/education levels;
- Confirmation of previous employment;
- Criminal history/background checks;
- Health check; and
- Reference checks.

Why does CA collect this information?

- To determine your suitability for employment or volunteer/intern engagement.
- So we can complete all the necessary steps in preparing you for your employment or volunteer/intern engagement should you be successful.
- So we can contact you about your current application or future employment or volunteer/intern opportunity.

Disclosure of personal information

The information you provide us with will be disclosed to the CA HR Branch and selection committee members directly involved with the recruitment process.

How CA stores your personal information

Your information will be stored by our e-recruitment provider in the cloud on services located in Australia. We require this third party provider, through our agreements with them, to comply with our security guidelines and privacy laws.

Access to personal information outside Australia

We are an international organisation with internal information sharing between our country offices. This means that it is possible your personal information may be shared with our offices based outside Australia if selection committee members are based overseas.
