

Position Description

POSITION TITLE: Vườn lên Program Coordinator

ACCOUNTABLE TO: CEO Extended Families Australia

PERIOD OF APPOINTMENT: This is a part time contract position that will run across 20 months commencing January 2021 and concluding August 2022. The position is subject to a 3-month probationary period.

HOURS OF EMPLOYMENT: 26 hours per week

Extended Families aims to provide a flexible family-friendly environment for staff. Actual starting and finishing times are flexible and can be negotiated. Note that this position will include after-hours work (finishing no later than 9pm)

ORGANISATIONAL CONTEXT:

This position is linked to a collaborative Information, Linkages and Capacity Building (ILC) funded Project being undertaken between Extended Families Australia and Vietnamese Families with Special Needs (VFSN) Inc. The Project seeks to build the organisational capacity of the VFSN and strengthen individual capacity Vietnamese people living with disability. The ILC- is part of the - the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS). The focus of the ILC is on creating connections between people with disability and the communities they live in.

Extended Families Australia facilitates positive connections between people within a community to provide support to children and young adults with disabilities and their families. Extended Families seeks to widen social networks, empower individuals, promote inclusion and strengthen the bonds people have within their local area. The organisation breaks down barriers by changing social attitudes and creating opportunities. Children, young adults and families who are supported by Extended Families have access to a number of flexible support options including individualised volunteer or support worker matching for social, recreational and respite support, NDIS Support Coordination, NDIS Plan Management, supported playgroups, peer based friendship groups and parent support groups. The organisation has a strong commitment to inclusion, works with, and employs people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.

Vietnamese Families with Special Needs (VFSN) is a parent led, volunteer based Incorporated Association providing peer support, parent information and community inclusion opportunities to the Vietnamese Community living with disability in Western Melbourne. Established to enhance the emotional and social wellbeing of Vietnamese families, the VFSN provides a weekly parent support group, disability and parent education sessions, an annual family camp and a variety of social and cultural events that build skills, connection, cultural understanding and wellbeing. At the core of all its activities and services is the VFSN vision of living in a society where Vietnamese families who have a child with a disability live with respect and dignity, are able to reach their optimum wellbeing and capacity; and are understood and accepted

The VFSN and Extended Families began working together in 2006 in the delivery of a volunteer support program to Vietnamese families in Melbourne's west. This initiative marked the beginning of an ongoing working relationship between the two organisations that continues today and has resulted in a number of successful service outcomes that have enhanced the lives of Vietnamese children, young people and families living with disability.

PROGRAM CONTEXT

This position is linked to the individual capacity-building arm of the Project, which targets the isolation, and lack of independence experienced by Vietnamese youth and young adults with a lived experience of Autism. The disconnection experienced young people can prevent them from reaching their potential and can limit their social and vocational opportunities.

The Vươn lên (VL) program will assist three groups of 8-10 young people (aged 15 to 18 and 19-24) and their families who are experiencing difficulties engaging in meaningful community activity and who have not been able to overcome inclusion barriers through existing services. The program will offer tailored, group based opportunities to develop participant interests, build pre-vocational skills, grow in confidence; increase resilience and motivation; experience social connection and community participation experiences. The VL program will also provide tailored peer support to parents of VL participants supporting them in their parenting role and assisting them in finding solutions to overcome inclusion barriers faced by their children.
