

FROM THE FOUNDER

VISION 2021

REBUILD

RE-STRUCTURE

Like many entities we have had the chance to start again with a new model of 'leanness but effectiveness'. Rebuilding for us has meant we can expand Nationally with our new online "Freedom School" and more skilled volunteers. We have engaged and trained a volunteer movement, with 'Education Coaches' to assist survivors in their local region. A 'Freedom Ambassador' for a local area, oversees a team of volunteers to advocate, speak and train their community in our cause and coaches assist survivors with our new program design. (see below)

We are grateful for the 47 skilled volunteers we have but we are looking for more in every State. If you are experienced in volunteering or leading volunteers and interested, contact us at: info@thefreedomhub.org

Sally Irwin - Founder / MD

Michele Wassink - Customer Experience Manager

RE - PRIORITISED

Helping survivors of modern slavery and partnering in the fight to end slavery has always been our mission. However, we funded more than half of that through our social enterprises. Hospitality crashed during Covid and is still not back. So we are now putting our business efforts into online orders for catering, retail, wholesale and increasing the private functions in our venue. We closed the Gold Coast cafe and our Customer Experience Manager is moving her focus in Sydney onto these more profitable areas of growth.

RE - DESIGNED

We have re-designed our Survivor School programs to match the new world we live in. We continue face to face courses for survivors who prefer that method of learning new skills and to socialise. But we now have our Online Freedom School, with all the same courses available for the survivor to work at their own pace and have an education coach to assist as required. Our Survivor Experience Manager will continue to oversee the survivors recovery pathway and health therapies, working closely with case workers & partners.

Eleni Argy - Survivor Experience Manager