Good Shepherd Australia New Zealand (GSANZ)

Our strategy outlines the world we want to see and our role advancing in it. It also speaks to the positive impact we will deliver to support women, girls and families to be safe, secure, strong and connected. We are committed to tackling the issues of our time which adversely affect them. We work to advance equity and social justice and support our communities to thrive.

We seek to increase economic participation and wellbeing, to build resilience, improve safety and bring about system change. We offer microfinance programs and products, financial counselling and coaching, family violence support, family and youth programs, playgroups, education programs and community houses. These services are complemented by research and advocacy to address the underlying structural causes of injustice, exclusion, and inequality.

Role Purpose

Good Shepherd employees are committed to inclusive practice that responds to the specific needs, context and circumstances of service participants. We embrace the diversity and intersectionality of individuals and recognise a person's right to a unique identity comprising culture, language, ability, community, gender, sex, sexual orientation and lived experience.

The Telephone & Online Team

This role will form a part of a broader team of skilled professionals working closely to deliver a holistic, multi-channel model of support across economic wellbeing, family violence and family services that is person centred and linked into community support services.

This National team will ensure that people who present with financial and personal disadvantage are supported and empowered to address immediate and longer term financial and personal risks and vulnerability.

As a Good Shepherd Financial Capability Intake Lead you will:

- Lead a team of Financial Capability Intake Officers responsible for receiving and triaging calls in a structured telephone and online environment; ensuring Officers take a client-directed approach that empowers and supports clients to tell their story and refer clients to Good Shepherd services and partners as is appropriate to their circumstance.

- Monitor and make recommendation on how to improve the client experience and implement changes as agreed with the Contact Centre Manager.
 - Ensure team members deliver a supportive, friendly and empathetic service at all times, including when collecting information in the loan origination system.
 - Step in and support clients where and as the need arises.
 - Through coaching and ongoing development, support the team to:
 - Lead a conversation through a trauma informed lens; ensure they have empathy for the challenges faced by people with varied lived experience; and they take a situational approach with each person.
 - Be able to recognise personal risk factors that may indicate family violence, mental health distress or child abuse and neglect; prioritise, triage and refer to other sources of support and assistance in alignment with the client's goals.
 - Be culturally sensitive and aware and be able adapt their practice to accommodate the diverse needs, background and identify of each individual.
 - Always comply with GSANZ policy, procedure and code of conduct.

Key Responsibilities

- Provide leadership for a Financial Capability team that includes:
 - Lead development of a high-performance team through demonstration of capabilities outlined in Good Shepherds capability framework and performance planning process
 - Ensuring all clients receive high quality, trauma informed intake and assessment support and referrals are appropriate to the client's situation (referral may be to internal or external services).
 - Ensuring client information taken during intake is entered into the relevant systems (including the loan origination system) and contained or shared appropriately.
 - Coaching and supporting the team to implement new ways of working and to quickly adopt new systems and processes that improve client outcomes.
 - Supporting the team through a formal supervision framework
 - Ensuring the wellbeing of the team through provision of appropriate support in their day to day roles
 - Provide formal and informal supervision, set goals and manage contributions of direct reports and contribute to the development of teams understanding, skills and capabilities.
 - Support the Contact Centre Manager with people leadership
 - Lead the performance of team across key metrics and workforce planning activities.
 - Build and sustain excellent relationships with leadership, colleagues, the team and all stakeholders.
 - Ensure the team maintains client files, case notes and data in accordance with Good Shepherd's standards.
 - Support the Contact Centre Manager to plan for peaks and troughs in workload and make decision to optimise the workforce and resources.
 - Comply with GSANZ policy, procedures and practice and participate in GSANZ organisational activities
