batyr is a 'for purpose' preventative mental health organisation, created and driven by young people, for young people. We run programs that help smash the stigma surrounding mental health and empower young people to reach out for support. We help create supportive communities.

We are an energetic, fun and dynamic team who are excited about changing the way we speak about mental health. We are on the hunt to build our team with even more passionate, skilled and driven people to continue to develop our high-performance culture and expand the reach and impact of batyr. If you want a workplace where you can bring all of your full, weird and wonderful self to the office each day, this is the place.

working with us

At batyr, we care deeply about those we welcome into our work-family and do our best to support our team. We do this by:

- providing all permanent and fixed-term staff with a wellbeing budget that you can use on a gym membership, a new surfboard, pottery classes, music lessons, a spa treatment, a new book... almost whatever you need to help keep you feeling good
- providing wellbeing sessions and ongoing professional development
- wellbeing leave - your personal leave doesn't just have to be for sick days, at batyr you can also use this leave to support your mental health and wellbeing
- mid-year and start-of-year retreats
- flexible working arrangements
- salary packaging up to $15,900 pa - because we're a not for profit, you can choose to receive a proportion of your wage as a reimbursement of personal expenses, with no income tax payable on this money
- a bring your own device policy, with reimbursements for using your own phone and computer batyr is committed to providing a safe, culturally appropriate, inclusive environment for all people, regardless of their ethnicity, faith, disability, sexuality, or gender identity. We believe that everyone's voice is valid and worthy of being heard and because of this we strongly encourage people from all backgrounds to apply, especially those from minority or marginalised communities.

about you

You are someone who would love to be immersed in Uni life, helping to plan and create events and activations that get Uni students pumped. You are passionate about developing communities who care about one another and encouraging them to take action when it comes to looking after their mental health. You tend to bring people together and feel confident sparking up conversations with new people. You love some good old fashioned teamwork and enjoy energising diverse groups of people ensuring the work you do is inclusive and creates strength in numbers. You wake up wondering how you can make the world a better place to live and you set about getting it done! You live the batyr values of balance, boldness, empathy, inclusivity, and positivity. Most of all, you just can't wait to make universities full of positive conversations about mental health and want to have a great time doing it.

position summary

The University Student Engagement Coordinator (RMIT) will be one of the batyr reps on campus at RMIT to work alongside RMIT Wellbeing team. The role will include supporting 2 volunteer groups of student leaders (batyr@RMIT Exec) to deliver events, initiatives and campaigns on campus to engage all students in positive mental health conversations. One of these executives will have a focus on Vocational Education student engagement, although this role will support both teams to work collaboratively.

Working alongside the University Program Coordinator (RMIT) from batyr, the role will be pivotal in building a batyr presence amongst students and staff within the university and to the success of the partnership more broadly. The university program at RMIT is aimed at reducing stigma and increasing help seeking behaviour for young people, promoting the message that it's ok to not be ok.

The University Student Engagement Coordinator (RMIT) will report to the VIC/SA State Manager in Melbourne.

All candidates will need to hold a current Working with Children Check and Police Check, or be willing to obtain these within one (1) month of starting the role.
