1. ORGANISATIONAL ENVIRONMENT

Women's Health Victoria (WHV) is state-wide, independent, feminist, not for profit organisation that works to improve the health and well-being of all Victorian women through its work in health promotion, policy, advocacy and support services.

About 1800 My Options

1800 My Options is a free, confidential and pro-choice phonenumber and website service delivered by Women's Health Victoria. 1800 My Options provides information and pathways to contraception, pregnancy options (including abortion care) and sexual health services in Victoria.

A team of Senior Information and Resource Officers are responsible for the day to day delivery of the 1800 My Options phone line and web-based information service.

About the role

Senior Information and Resource Officers respond to incoming calls and online enquiries to the 1800 My Options service to meet the SRH needs of Victorians and other callers such as health professionals, carers or support services. The Senior Information and Resource Officers provide debriefing to each other while on shift, and undertake evidence informed health promotion and other project work to support the service to achieve its objectives.

2. POSITION OBJECTIVES

- 2.1 Respond to incoming calls and online enquiries to the 1800 My Options service.
- 2.2 Monitor service provision in the SRH sector to ensure Victorians have the most up to date information about service availability, including maintaining databases and directories as required.
- 2.3 Identifying emerging issues for users of the 1800 My Options service via service data, including gaps in service provision and information needs.

- 2.4 Provide support and debriefing to the 1800 My Options phonenumber team during shift.
- 2.5 Contribute to the development and promotion of the 1800 My Options service through defined project work.
- 2.6 Contribute to identifying gaps and increasing knowledge and understanding of SRH through health promotion activities.

3. KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- 3.1 Respond to phone and online enquiries about contraception options, pregnancy options (including abortion care) and sexual health issues from a range of stakeholders including women and pregnant people, their partners, family members, health professionals and other service providers.
- 3.2 Provide a confidential, non-judgemental and pro-choice service.
- 3.3 Provide impartial and individualised pathways to trusted sexual and reproductive health services, according to service user needs.
- 3.4 Manage any risk situations that present to the service in relation to child sexual abuse, suicide, family violence, sexual assault and reproductive coercion and activate appropriate support referral protocols.
- 3.5 Assess the needs of service users from underserved communities and connect them to appropriate services. This includes very young women and girls, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women, women from migrant or refugee backgrounds, the LGBTQI+ community, international students, women living in rural and regional Victoria, women living with disabilities and women working in the sex industry.
- 3.6 Participate in in-shift debriefing with 1800 My Options colleagues, including individual de-briefing and live call-coaching, escalating to the Manager (1800 My Options) where appropriate.
- 3.7 Ensure all daily tasks and project work deadlines are completed.
- 3.8 Ensure that data integrity and recording practices are maintained to a high standard.
- 3.9 Maintain and update the 1800 My Options service database to ensure up to date information about service availability.
- 3.10 Inform the Manager (1800 My Options) of any issues that arise during shift relating to risk, service issues, emerging issues for callers and service feedback.
- 3.11 Coordinate, participate in and deliver project and evidence informed health promotion work and resource development including events, social media and other activities as agreed in workplan with the Manager (1800 My Options).

4. RESPONSIBILITIES CARRIED OUT BY ALL STAFF

- 4.1.1 Problem solve day to day issues as they arise.
- 4.1.2 Promote WHV and its programs.
- 4.1.3 Participate in WHV strategic and operational planning processes.
- 4.1.4 Contribute to WHV's capacity to deliver its goals, enabling and supporting high performing teams and fostering productive relationships with others.
- 4.1.5 Participate in the WHV Staff Development Scheme including setting of performance measures, skills development plan and performance appraisal feedback system.
- 4.1.6 Provide verbal and written reports, and activities data as appropriate, on progress across all areas of responsibility.
- 4.1.7 Undertake other duties as directed.
- 4.1.8 Be actively involved in a learning organisation including continuous quality improvement, policy development and review and accreditation processes.
- 4.1.9 Work within organisational policies, procedures and the Enterprise Agreement.
- 4.1.10 Be accountable for the maintenance of a safe working environment.
