

Position Description: Teleweb Team Leader

About Switchboard Victoria (Inc.)

Switchboard Victoria is a community-based, not for profit organisation that provides peer-based, volunteer driven support services for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans and gender diverse, Intersex, Queer, Asexual and more (LGBTIQ+) people and their friends, families and allies.

Our current activities include:

- Phone and web counselling and referral – Switchboard is the Victorian partner in the national QLife service. QLife provides anonymous and free LGBTI peer support and referral for people in Australia wanting to talk about sexuality, identity, gender, bodies, feelings, or relationships.
- Community connections for older LGBTI people – Switchboard’s Out & About program aims to reduce social isolation and loneliness through creating friendship and connection between LGBTI seniors living anywhere in Victoria and peer volunteer visitors.
- Rainbow Door - is a free specialist LGBTIQ+ helpline providing information, support, and referral to all LGBTIQ+ Victorians, their friends and family during the COVID-19 crisis and beyond. Rainbow Door supports people of all ages and identities with issues that may include suicidal thoughts, family and intimate partner violence (including elder abuse), alcohol and other drugs, relationship issues, sexual assault, social isolation, mental health and wellbeing.
- Suicide prevention - research and development of suicide prevention resources and programs for LGBTIQ+ communities.
- QTIPoC Programs - In consultation with key stakeholders, Switchboard’s QTIPoC Programs will build on our previous QTIPoC Project in continuing to build internal capacity in relation to meeting QTIPoC community needs and extend into targeted services as outlined below. The QTIPoC programs aim to build greater equity for Queer, Trans, Intersex Peoples and/or People of Colour and People of Faith.

About the Rainbow Door

Rainbow Door is a specialist LGBTIQ+ helpline providing Information, support, and referral to LGBTIQ+ Victorians, their friends and family during and after COVID 19. The service will provide assessment and short-term case management and link people to safe services to support them with issues including suicidal thoughts, Family and Intimate partner violence including elder abuse, housing, AOD, legal issues, social isolation, and health.

The Rainbow Door operates from 10am – 5pm, 7 days a week through phone, email, and text services.

About QLife

Switchboard is the proud Victorian provider of the national LGBTIQ+ QLife service. QLife provides Australia-wide anonymous, LGBTI peer support and referral for people wanting to talk about a range of issues including sexuality, identity, gender, bodies, feelings, or relationships. The service is free and includes both telephone and webchat support, delivered by trained LGBTI community members across the country. Our services are for LGBTI individuals, their friends and families, and health professionals in Australia.

QLife operates nationally from 3pm – midnight, 365 days a year. Switchboard staffs the service 7 days a week from 6pm – 10pm.

Position Overview

The Teleweb Team Leader role works across both the QLife and the Rainbow Door helplines. The Team Leader supports volunteer peer workers in the QLife Program to provide excellence in referral pathways, peer support, crisis intervention, relief from social isolation and identification of needs for those who contact the QLife service. The Team Leader works within the existing structures of the organisation, in collaboration with the Teleweb Manager, Practice Lead and the Counselling Supervisor to support volunteers to address the changing nature of the work in the service and to provide support and guidance to volunteers who are dealing with callers experiencing high levels of distress and crisis. Switchboard staffs the QLife service 7 days a week from 6pm – 10pm.

In the Rainbow Door program, the Team Leader in conjunction with the Practice Lead, supervises and supports the Rainbow Door Helpline staff to provide assessment, support, information, advocacy, short term case management and referral pathways to people accessing the service.

The Teleweb Team Leader will be required to work to a fortnightly roster that may include weekend /afterhours work.
