About the employer...

Our client Blacktown Women's and Girls Health Centre (BWGHC), is a feminist, non-for-profit charity meeting the needs of excellent health and wellbeing initiatives for women and girls and envisages a community in which women exercise equal rights, choose their own destiny and have a safe environment for themselves and their children. BWGHC work towards this by providing counselling, information and referral, advocacy, capacity building and support services to clients.

The organisation has been established in the area for over 30 years as one of 21 Women's Health Centres across NSW. Over this time, the BWGHC has grown and evolved to run a range of programs including women only Doctor and Nurse Clinics, Early Childhood Clinics, Legal Services, Drug and Alcohol support and advice, Counselling (Generalist and Domestic Violence), Case Work, Group Work and Information Services and auspice the North-West Sydney Women's Domestic Violence Court Advocacy Services.

Their Mission

BWGHC are committed to providing a professional, affordable and holistic gender-informed service promoting health, wellbeing and empowerment for women, delivered in a caring, non-judgemental, respectful and safe environment.

They achieve this by:

- Providing a holistic women's health service to the community
- Educating women and children so they can make informed choices about healthcare and well-being
- Empowering women and children to make informed choices throughout their lives
- Providing a safe place for women and children
- Advocating for and supporting women from a feminist perspective

Values

BWGHC recognise that women's health encompasses the physical, spiritual, environmental, emotional and social wellbeing of women and girls. BWGHC offers a holistic approach to understanding, managing and supporting women, girls and the broader community in the Blacktown LGA to make informed decisions about their own health and wellbeing. This approach is based on feminist philosophy, with an emphasis on respect and empowerment for all women and girls.

BWGHC values are:

- Dignity –treating all people in a way that is respectful of their diversity and as valued individuals
- Compassion – in their interactions with people, they strive to be kind and empathic
- Optimism – an unwavering belief in the positive potential inherent in people and society

The Community

BWGHC provides health and well-being services to women and girls in Blacktown LGA, a 'huge and diverse' area with high levels of cultural and linguistic diversity. Many areas of Blacktown LGA experience high levels of socio-economic disadvantage, poor health outcomes and high levels of unmet need when it comes to service provision. The area is also experiencing rapid urban development and population growth and is now one of the most densely populated Local Government Areas in Western Sydney, further increasing the demand for services.

Leave work each day feeling part of making a difference to the local community! Find out more about BWGHC: www.womensandgirls.org.au

Some of the great benefits provided to employees...

- Salary Packaging – increase your take home pay
- Some above Award conditions
- Opportunities for multi skilling and up-skilling
- High level of diversity in role
- Excellent working environment

Salary Packaging...

This employer has been endorsed as a Public Benevolent Institute (PBI). As such, they can offer their employees access to salary packaging benefits. Salary packaging offers significant tax benefits which present an opportunity for you to increase your take home pay by allowing you to take part of your income as a tax-free benefit. Salary packaging is completely voluntary but if you choose to utilise this, it can decrease your taxable income and therefore tax paid, increasing the amount you take home each pay period.

Child Related Employment...

This role is classified as child related employment and as such, the successful applicant will be required to provide a copy of current clearance of a paid employment type NSW Working with Children (WWC) check (under the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012). A copy of the letter you received from the Office of the Children's Guardian confirming your identity, your NSW WWC check number and expiry date is suitable.

If you don't currently hold a NSW WWC check, you do not need to gain this prior to applying for this job. Please accept this as advanced notice that should you progress through the recruitment process as far as to being offered the role, you would need to agree to apply for a check without delay as it can take up to 4 weeks to process. Fees involved are generally tax deductible.

However, if you currently hold a WWC check from another state or you hold a volunteer type NSW WWC, legislation does allow for you to start in the role assuming you apply to transfer to a new paid employment check within 3 months. So again, please note you do not need to gain this prior to applying for this job.
