Good Shepherd Australia New Zealand (GSANZ)

Our three-year strategy outlines the world we want to see and our role advancing in it. It also speaks to the positive impact we will deliver to support women, girls, and families to be safe, secure, strong, and connected. We are committed to tackling the issues of our time which adversely affect them. We work to advance equity and social justice and support our communities to thrive.

We seek to increase economic participation and wellbeing, to build resilience, improve safety and bring about system change. We offer microfinance programs and products, financial counselling and coaching, family violence support, family and youth programs, playgroups, education programs and community houses. These services are complemented by research and advocacy to address the underlying structural causes of injustice, exclusion, and inequality.

Role Purpose

Good Shepherd employees are committed to inclusive practice that responds to the specific needs, context, and circumstances of service participants. We embrace the diversity and intersectionality of individuals and recognise a person's right to a unique identity comprising culture, language, ability, community, gender, sex, sexual orientation and lived experience.

The Telephone and Online team

The T&O team deliver community finance products and services, including No Interest Loans, directly to clients. These products and services aim to improve the wellbeing and social inclusion of people who are disadvantaged and on low incomes.

This role is the initial point of contact for clients, assesses their needs and refers them appropriately, and delivers direct services (community finance products). This direct service delivery includes completing budgets and loan applications with clients.

It forms part of a broader team of skilled professionals working closely to deliver a holistic, multi-channel model of support across economic wellbeing, family violence and family services that is person centred and linked into community support services.

Key Responsibilities

- Receive and triage intake calls, show empathy and take a client-directed approach that empowers and supports a person while guiding them through the Good Shepherd finance options.
 - Respond to enquiries (phone and online), assess eligibility, determine client needs, and respond appropriately (this may be through providing direct services, information provision, or referrals to internal and external supports).
 - Assist people from diverse backgrounds with complex needs in a way that is respectful, appropriate, and professional.
 - Utilise known networks to provide information and make referrals to other support services, as required.
 - Assist clients with all aspects of loan applications, including conducting one-on-one interviews with clients, preparing a budget with them, and checking supporting documentation.
 - Be able to recognise financial risk factors, prioritise and triage to financial counselling, financial wellbeing, or legal supports, in alignment with the client's goals
 - Ensure accurate client records are kept using client databases and loan management systems.
 - Consult, refer and collaborate with other team members, including Hold & Connect, financial counselling and financial wellbeing peers, other GSANZ services and the broader service sector to support client goals
 - Consult, learn and implement new ways of working and quickly adopt new systems and processes to improve client outcomes.
 - Comply with GSANZ policy, procedures and practice and participate in GSANZ organisational activities.
