

Specialist Family Violence Case Manager Position Description

About Juno

Juno works with women and gender diverse people in Melbourne's northern suburbs who are experiencing homelessness, family violence, or economic insecurity. Formerly known as WISHIN*, we have a long history of partnering with women to help them make lasting change in their lives.

We are an independent, feminist organisation with a commitment to social change. Our work is led by frameworks of feminist, intersectional, and politicised trauma informed practice. Our approach to support is non-judgemental, evidence-based, and person-centred.

We recognise the many ways women and gender diverse people can be marginalised and the cumulative effects that multiple forms of discrimination can have. We speak out and amplify the voices of our participants to increase awareness of the challenges they face, the support required and to advocate for change to the systems and structures that hold them back.

Juno also works in partnership with women and gender diverse people who have experienced homelessness or family violence to promote early access to information and build capacity to avert future crisis.

Our values are:

Feminism & Intersectionality We respect the diverse experiences, identities, knowledge and strengths of women and gender diverse people and strive to empower them to realise their full potential.

Collaboration & Creativity We partner with women and gender diverse people to support them to connect to safety and independence. We recognise the inherent strength of working in partnership across the sectors and with communities to deliver our vision.

Equity & Justice - We recognise the range of inequities women and gender diverse people face and actively seek to challenge and address these through our service and advocacy. We create spaces and platforms that amplify the diverse voices of those experiencing gender-based poverty. We advocate for gender equity and justice.

Courage & Accountability - We strive for our work to be high quality and grounded in evidence to make impactful change. We are accountable to the clients and communities we partner with. We speak up and are willing to take risks and make change.
