About the Greens NSW

The Greens Party movement is based on the four pillars of social equity and economic justice, ecological sustainability, grassroots democracy, and peace, nonviolence and disarmament. Greens parties across the world share these same principles and values.

In NSW we have six Members of Parliament, two Senators in the Federal Parliament, and 53 local government Councillors. We are comprised of 61 local groups across the state.

About the Newtown electorate

The seat is currently represented by Greens MP Jenny Leong, who was elected to the NSW Parliament in 2015 as the first Member for the new electorate which includes the suburbs Chippendale, Darlington, Enmore, Newtown, Erskineville, Petersham, Lewisham Redfern and Stanmore, as well as parts of Alexandria, Camperdown, Eveleigh, and Marrickville.
