

About SEA:	Sex Education Australia (SEA) was established in 2011 and works with over 100 primary and secondary schools and community groups in Victoria. Our school programs are run by passionate educators who deliver dynamic and informative sessions that allow young people to develop confidence to talk and ask questions. SEA provides key messages that young people can take away to help them with their decision making, health and safety. SEA educators are committed to delivering programs that are age-appropriate, accurate and relevant, and help young people to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• develop confidence to talk about and understand how their bodies work• learn about respect and consent and how important it is• develop healthy and positive friendships and relationships• develop their sexual health knowledge and decision-making skills• manage risk and increase free and sincere choice• develop positive attitudes about sexuality• celebrate diversity in our communities and schools
Position title:	School & Community Educator (Sexuality and relationships education)
Employment:	Casual
Reports to:	Justine Kiely-Scott
The job:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• deliver programs and follow the lesson plans provided by SEA (primary, secondary, parent and community groups)• travel to clients to deliver programs or deliver programs online
Employment conditions:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• three-month probationary period and training. The successful candidate will undergo a comprehensive training period consisting of an initial meeting, observing SEA staff teaching and finally run classroom sessions independently, whilst being evaluated by a SEA staff member• this is a casual position• work is offered during Victorian school term dates• most work is based in Melbourne, however, some work may be outside Melbourne metro or online• SEA reserves the right to not offer ongoing work at the end of the training period if the teaching standards have not been met• Australian citizenship, residency or valid visa to work in Australia is essential

Employment conditions:

- three-month probationary period and training. The successful candidate will undergo a comprehensive training period consisting of an initial meeting, observing SEA staff teaching and finally run classroom sessions independently, whilst being evaluated by a SEA staff member
- this is a casual position
- work is offered during Victorian school term dates
- most work is based in Melbourne, however, some work may be outside Melbourne metro or online
- SEA reserves the right to not offer ongoing work at the end of the training period if the teaching standards have not been met
- Australian citizenship, residency or valid visa to work in Australia is essential

Qualifications and experience:

- relevant experience
- current Working with Children Check
- current driver's licence and personal vehicle for transport

Key selection criteria:

In addition to the above requirements, applicants must meet the following selection criteria:

- be available 3-4 days a week
- be passionate about working with young people in an authentic and engaging manner
- high quality teaching skills and excellent classroom management skills
- high level of organisational, communication and interpersonal skills
- ability to be flexible and take on a variety of teaching roles in various settings
- willingness to develop professional practice and keep up to date with current educational practices and issues relating to sexuality and relationships education