Participation:

We promote participation and transform lives and communities We value the expertise and contribution of everyone we work with We build knowledge and lead conversations

Our approach to service delivery

Our services are guided by our values and informed by our Well Together Model. This approach means we work at 3 levels, with the individual, with their families and friends and with the community. Well Together recognises that developing skills, building confidence and strengthening relationships will help people to build their wellbeing and to live independently. The model provides an evidence-based approach to create individually tailored, effective support packages. Wellways assists individuals to develop the capacity to manage their own wellbeing, equip family and friends with information and skills, and engage community members in support networks.

Advocacy Services

We have a strong advocacy program, informed by the lived experience of people with mental health issues or disability, their families and friends. Members of Wellways play a vital role in developing our advocacy platform. We advocate for systemic change that will create better conditions and improved opportunities for people with a mental health and / or disabilities and carers.

All our recovery services and advocacy programs:

- Support and create opportunities for recovery
- Value cultural diversity
- Value peer participation and leadership (participant and carer)
- Are underpinned by evidence-based best practice

Position Summary

The Aftercare service is a non-clinical support service focused on providing practical psychosocial support to people experiencing a suicidal crisis or who have attempted suicide.

Support is provided for up to three months and targets those at the highest risk through referrals following hospital presentations or through specialist mental health services

Wellways works in partnership with MPHN and MLHD to deliver the Aftercare service in the Murrumbidgee region.

The primary purpose for the Aftercare Service – Support Coordinator is to provide non-clinical care and practical supports to individuals in the first three months following a suicide attempt and/or suicidal crisis.

In particular, Support Coordinators will:

- Work collaboratively with participants with a recovery or strengths-based approach to formulate, implement and review support plans, needs assessment and safety plans.
- Works collaboratively with participants to monitor progress through completion and review of outcome measures.
- Participates in intake and assessment processes with referral partners.
- Implements practices to maximise engagement of people referred to the service, especially from harder to engage groups.
- Ensures interactions with diverse clients are culturally appropriate.
- Assists participants to connect with health, clinical and community-based support services as outlined in the hospital discharge plan and wellbeing plans.
- Ensures participants rights, confidentiality and self-determination within a context of safety planning and risk mitigation.
- Effectively manages information sharing with other service providers, where relevant and/or required.
- Keeps electronic client information records updated and ensure an accurate record of activities are maintained.
- Undertakes monitoring, reporting and evaluation activities.

Under the support and direction of the Team Leader, the role forms part of the Murrumbidgee team and works with the team and other key stakeholders in the ongoing development and effective implementation of the Murrumbidgee regional and program plans.

Refer to Attachment 1 for a reference to the overall Wellways organisation structure and for the relationship lines in context of the role.
