

Our Team Charter

We are one team dedicated and united behind a simple commitment.

To create and share knowledge that improves the lives of people with intellectual disability, in partnership with people with intellectual disability.

We believe in the four principles of social justice: equity, access, participation and rights.

We are results focused and determined to be the change.

Our vision will only be achieved by working together.

So lookout for one another and be supportive the best way you can.

Listen to others. Value and respect everyone's unique expertise.

Trust and integrity are non-negotiable.

Be proud of who we are and have passion for what we do.

Be resilient. Be generous. Be curious.

At CDS we aim to make a difference.
