

Position Description

Practice Supervisor

Location:	Kedron	Reports To:	Program Manager
Award:	Social, Community, Home Care and Disability Services Industry Award, Level 6	PD Date:	May 2026

About us

Act for Kids is a prominent provider of prevention, professional therapy and support services for children who have suffered abuse and support for families at risk. With over 30 centres nationally, we have supported thousands of children and their families for more than 30 years. In 2024-2025 we provided services to 37,171 people, including over 21,780 children.

Our unique multidisciplinary teams provide integrated therapy, sexual abuse counselling, safe houses in remote Indigenous communities, information, advice and referral services, intensive family support and preschools designed for children with additional development needs to ensure we set them up for success at school.

About our commitment

- Our vision is that all kids have a safe and happy childhood.
- We are a child safe organisation and all children who come into contact with our services will be provided with a welcoming and safe service.
- We are committed to working with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to design and deliver services that best strengthen our support to their children, families and communities.
- We endeavour to provide a work environment that ensures the health, safety and wellbeing of all team members is embedded in our everyday work practices.

About our values

At Act for Kids our exceptional organisational culture is aligned to our values. You will be part of a team that is professional, ethical, caring, courageous and collaborative and we expect you to demonstrate these behaviours throughout your career with us.

About the program

Intensive Family Support (IFS) services combine a lead case management model with a collaborative coaching approach to assist vulnerable families to build their capacity to safely care for and protect their children. The purpose of IFS is to build practical skills, resilience and independence in families where referred concerns include parenting challenges, substance use, domestic and family violence (DFV), significant trauma history, or factors relating to disability or mental health. The IFS program takes a child-centred and family-focused approach to working with families, predominantly within their home environment.

About the position

The Practice Supervisor role sits within the IFS leadership structure and is responsible for the delivery of line management and practice supervision to practitioners. The role is required to provide practice direction and support to team members regarding child protection risk, engaging with hard-to-reach families, and the implementation of a case management service to families.

Depending on the structure of the broader IFS team, the position may also be required to hold a small number of cases and deliver case work interventions to them.

Key responsibilities

- Upskill and support IFS practitioners to deliver high quality client outcomes within a performance planning and development culture.
- Oversee the development and completion of assessments and case plans by the lead practitioner, at key points throughout a family's engagement with IFS.
- Regularly facilitate or lead client case consultations, giving directions about risk, safety, and practice interventions.
- Provide individual and group learning development opportunities, through the provision of PASE supervision, group supervision and field supervision.
- Participate in home visits where appropriate/requested, supporting IFS practitioners to apply new skills using a coaching framework.
- Endorse the use of information sharing provisions, documenting the use of these provisions on the relevant client database.
- Develop and mentor team member understanding and implementation of the Strengthening Families Protecting Children Framework for Practice, and the Safe and Together practice framework.
- Facilitate social learning, community connectedness, good health and wellbeing in families.
- Depending on the structure of the broader IFS team, hold primary case management responsibilities, delivering interventions to families, caregivers, children and young people, addressing identified needs and child protection concerns.
- Promote the Intensive Family Support role and functions to key partners agencies and the community.
- Work collaboratively with other professionals and stakeholders to meet client-related outcomes.
- Ensure team members maintain report records and data in accordance with organisational expectations.
- Assist the Program Manager to ensure contractual Key Performance Indicators are met, including the provision of reports as requested.
- Comply with all Act for Kids policies and procedures.
- Maintain confidentiality and privacy in all matters relating to team members, clients, and procedures.
- Fulfil other tasks that your manager/s may reasonably ask you to perform.
- Act as a client/customer focused, values based team member and work collaboratively with other team members to achieve strong results across all activities at Act for Kids.
- Ensure behaviour during all work interactions is aligned to our values of being professional, ethical, team oriented, caring, courageous and collaborative.

About you

Qualifications

- Tertiary degree in a relevant discipline (allied health, social work, human services).
- Professional registration (if required).
- Membership of a relevant professional association (desirable).

Skills and experience

- At least five (5) years' experience working with children and families, preferably with time spent working within a trauma-informed framework.
- Relevant experience supervising staff in similar role.
- Clinical and therapeutic understanding of the impacts of trauma on child and family functioning.
- Ability to address sensitive issues with families pertaining to risk and child protection concerns.
- Well-developed communication, problem solving and interpersonal skills that can be applied within an integrated case management model.
- Understanding of how to communicate and work effectively with families from different socio-economic and cultural backgrounds, including Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.
- Ability to work collaboratively as part of a team.
- Excellent time management skills in maintaining a caseload of clients, including timely record keeping and database entry, as well as meeting clinical supervision and other job requirements.

- Ability to be flexible in scheduling family appointments, as appointments are made around family's availability and can occur outside of normal business hours.
- Ability to rapidly acquire an understanding of relevant child protection legislation and policy reforms

Other requirements

- Eligibility for a positive Working with Children Check in the applicable state of employment in Australia or exemption based on professional qualifications and registration.
- Current driver's licence.
- Applicants must be eligible to legally work in Australia and proof of eligibility will be requested.