About Wellways

Wellways Australia is a leading not-for-profit organisation dedicated to ensuring all Australians lead active and fulfilling lives in their community. We work with individuals, families, and the community to help them imagine and achieve better lives. We advocate for change to make sure people can access the best possible care and information when they need it. We provide a wide range of services and assistance for people of all ages with mental health issues, disabilities, and those requiring community care.

Wellways is an equal opportunity employer that offers generous salary packaging and opportunities to undertake professional training and development. People with lived experience, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, and people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds bring highly valued skills to our workforce.

Our Values

Honesty:

- We are open and sincere in all interaction
- We show care and consideration to all our stakeholders
- We take responsibility for our actions

Acceptance

- We champion and respect all voices and choices
- We accept people no matter how complex their needs
- We see the person, the family, and the community

Fairness:

- We believe everyone has the right to equal opportunities
- We challenge social injustice and advocate for change
- We collaborate to solve problems

Commitment:

- We are committed to our work, and we won't give up
- We have the courage to make decisions and are accountable for our actions
- We dare to go down new roads and challenge accepted wisdom

Participation:

We promote participation and transform lives and communities
We value the expertise and contribution of everyone we work with
We build knowledge and lead conversations

Our Approach to Service Delivery

Our recovery services are guided by our values and informed by our Community Recovery Model. This approach to Recovery means we work at 3 levels, with the individual, with their families and friends and with the community. Wellways' Community Recovery Model recognises that developing skills, building confidence, and strengthening relationships will help people to recover and to live independently. The model provides an evidence-based approach to create individually tailored, effective recovery support packages. Wellways assists individuals to develop the capacity to manage their own wellbeing, equip family and friends with information and skills, and engage community members in support networks.

Advocacy Services

We have a strong advocacy program, informed by the lived experience of people with mental health issues or disability, their families, and friends. Members of Wellways play a vital role in developing our advocacy platform. We advocate for systemic change that will create better conditions and improved opportunities across the range of services and supports we offer, including people and their families living with mental health and / or disabilities, and carers.

All our recovery services and advocacy programs:

- Support and create opportunities for recovery
- Value cultural diversity
- Value peer participation and leadership (participant and carer)
- Are underpinned by evidence-based best practice

Position Summary

Wellways has several programs providing services to the South Tasmania region. These programs aim to provide a range of biopsychosocial support strategies that promote and support social inclusion.

Under the support and direction of the Program Coordinator – South Tasmania, this program worker role forms part of the Wellways to Recovery team. Wellways to Recovery program which is a community-based support program for individuals with mental health issues. The program works with individuals and their families to identify personal recovery goals and assists them to develop the knowledge, skills, and strategies to improve their health and wellbeing. We also provide information, education, advice and support to family members, friends, and the wider social and support networks of people.

Work will be guided by Wellways' evidence-based practice frameworks:

- Intentional peer support (Discovery)
- Supported Education
- Individual Placement and Support (Employment)
- Family Education
- CALD Recovery Principles
- Working with people from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander backgrounds
- Working with LGBTIQ people

Our Practice Frameworks identify a range of tools and processes to assist participants to develop the confidence and capacity to manage their own wellbeing, equip family and friends with information and skills and engage community members as mentors and supports.
