

Reporting to	Team Leader, Community Orientated Advice and Treatment Service / RAPIDS
Classification	SCHADS Award, Level 4
Location	Dependent on program

About ACSO

From the organic beginnings of our founder, Stan McCormack, the Australian Community Support Organisation (ACSO) has delivered programs to help break the cycle of people repeatedly entering the justice system because they lack the support to make change.

ACSO work with people at risk of entering or who have already entered the justice system. Our work supports, diverts, or reintegrates people through a range of services including mental health, alcohol and other drug treatment, intensive residential support, housing, and employment. These services span the entire justice continuum from prevention to rehabilitation.

Our Vision

ACSO's vision is for a community where everyone has the opportunity to thrive, and prison truly is the last resort.

Our Purpose

Our purpose is to strengthen the wellbeing of communities by advocating for and delivering services which divert people away from the justice system.

Our Ethos

"Understand the Story. Support the Change."

Our Core Values

Passion; Our heart and passion are at the core of everything we do.

Belief in Humanity; We believe that everyone deserves another chance and entitled to opportunities which can help them change their lives and realise their potential.

Integrity in all we do; We are genuine in our relationships with clients and each other, always true to ourselves and courageous in our approach.

Innovative spirit; We are willing to explore and develop new and innovative solutions and take on the challenges that confront us.

Purpose of the position

COATS (Community Orientated Advice and Treatment Service) and RAPIDS (Responsive Assessment Planning Intervention Diversion Service) are state-wide intake, assessment and referral services that administer both state and commonwealth funded treatment pathways for clients in contact with, or at risk of coming in to contact with, the justice system.

Our programs provide specialist assessments for clients being considered for, or placed on, community corrections orders that include AOD assess and treat conditions. Our Forensic AOD assessors are responsible for assessing, writing high-quality clinical forensic assessment reports and developing realistic treatment plans for Justice clients across Victoria.

Deliverables

- Conduct assessment interviews at ACSO locations (including some afterhours work, for example 5pm – 7pm, on occasion) as directed and offsite locations such as prisons, Community Corrections offices and other locations as required, formulate findings and treatment plans using report style documents
- Undertake liaison and consultation, and provide outcome feedback to key stakeholders
- Provide brief intervention and bridging support where appropriate
- Communicate and escalate any arising risk and safety concerns
- Creating and maintaining detailed, accurate and appropriate high-level case files for your clients on ACSO's client information management database
- Liaise with appropriate internal staff regarding treatment plans and referrals
- Achieving contractual outcomes and individual KPIs.

Qualifications and Experience

- Tertiary qualification (minimum level of Diploma) in a relevant health-related discipline (e.g., nursing, psychology, social work). Qualifications in fields such as criminology and welfare are considered unrelated for this position
- Minimum of 12 months, full-time equivalent, alcohol and drug work clinical experience delivering a range of treatment interventions in a credible alcohol and drug treatment agency/program
- Certificate IV (minimum) in Alcohol and Drug Work, or currently completing AOD qualification
- Department of Health Clinical Drug Assessor Accreditation (desirable), or ability to obtain once AOD studies are completed (essential).

Key Selection Criteria

- Experience delivering AOD treatment interventions in the AOD, mental health or forensic sectors, working with complex clients
- The ability to gather information through assessment, and formulate findings and recommendations utilising strong report writing skills
- Working with clients for a forensic background and the ability to work in various settings, including prison environments
- A commitment to staff development, safety and their own self care
- Commitment to service improvement and continual professional development
- Maintain a professional standard of behaviour
- Good communication and conflict management skills
- Eligibility to enter Victorian prisons
- Strong and demonstrated commitment and alignment to the ACSO Vision, Values and Mission

Core Competencies

- Evaluating problems; examining information; documenting facts; interpreting data
- Fostering Inclusion: inviting diversity, promote equity, culturally responsive
- Establishing rapport; welcoming people, putting people at ease
- Showing resilience; conveying self-confidence, showing composure, resolving conflict
- Giving support; understanding people, team working, valuing individuals
- Processing details; meeting timescales, checking things, following procedure
- Structuring Tasks; managing tasks, upholding standards, producing output

Mandatory compliance requirements

As a registered NDIS provider and under the NDIS working screening requirements, this role requires each employee to have the below prior to any offer or commencement of employment.

Police check	ACSO will initiate this process during the recruitment and selection process and cover the cost of any Australian or International police checks. Note: ACSO are open to considering employing people with a criminal record.
NDIS Worker Screening Check	An NDIS Worker Screening Check clearance must be supplied by all new employees (at the cost of the employee). This check is valid for 5 years and transferable across NDIS providers and Australia.
Car Licence	A valid Australian driver's licence. This is requirement of the role not NDIS worker screening.