

Non-Executive Director

Join the Board of Integricare as a Non-Executive Director

For more than 140 years, Integricare has cared for children and families through Christian care in action. Today, more than 1,000 children and families each year are known, nurtured and supported through our trusted early learning centres and child and family services across Sydney. Now we're looking for thoughtful, values-driven leaders to ensure effective governance and oversee the implementation of strategies, policies, systems and frameworks to help shape what comes next.

Bring Your Experience. Leave a Legacy.

Alongside professional expertise, we're seeking people who share our Christian mission and believe every child deserves to be seen, heard and given the opportunity to thrive. You'll contribute strategic insight, sound judgement and genuine care.
