

Refugee and Immigration Legal Service Management Committee Member (Voluntary)

Refugee and Immigration Legal Service

Job description

About the Role

Refugee and Immigration Legal Service is a not-for-profit organisation based in South Brisbane that has provided essential legal services to refugees and other vulnerable migrants for 45 years.

We are seeking an experienced and industrious individual to join our Management Committee. This role requires a proactive professional person who wants to make a difference for our Service and our clients and is able to commit to a three year tenure.

Management Committee members make a significant contribution to RAILS, including by participating in sub-committees, reviewing policies and providing strategic input and oversight.

We are especially looking for a committed Management Committee member with experience in one or more of the following:

- Lived experience of forced migration
- Corporate governance and management
- Experience working with government
- Fundraising and philanthropy

RAILS is committed to being a culturally safe and inclusive organisation and has policies in place to create and maintain appropriate work practices and a respectful work environment. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island people and otherwise culturally and linguistically diverse people are encouraged to apply for this role.

If you are Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander or otherwise culturally and linguistically diverse and would like to speak to us about the role requirements before expressing your interest, please email president@rails.org.au using the subject line: Refugee and Immigration Legal Service Management Committee Member (Voluntary) enquiry via EthicalJobs.

The Management Committee meets on the first Monday of every second month on site (or remote, if needed) in the RAILS' office at South Brisbane from 5pm to 7pm.

If you are interested, please send your Express of Interest to president@rails.org.au using the subject line: Refugee and Immigration Legal Service Management Committee Member (Voluntary) enquiry via EthicalJobs by the closing date.
