Primary Purpose of this Position (In one sentence - why does the role exist?)
To coordinate the delivery of the Learning for Life program to families who have moved to now reside outside defined The Smith Family communities. We do this via a strength based, family partnership approach with a focus on supporting stronger participation in education. Specifically, supporting families to achieve a high level of school attendance, effective school transitions, senior school engagement and post school planning which contribute to participation in post school work or study in the long term. The focus is on supporting geographically dispersed families to identify barriers to education and utilising external referrals, links to programs, brokering community relationships and access to information as ways to overcome these barriers. This focus is underpinned by our Family Practice Framework and a coaching approach within teams and in working with families.

Other Dimensions of this Position
• Taking a collaborative partnership approach, this position will develop and maintain purposeful education focused relationships with students and families participating in the Learning for Life program. • The role works with students and families on their identified goals and uses a collaborative process to develop actions related to these goals. This collaborative process is called our Family Practice Framework. The scope of the role is to link families with the services, information and support they have identified. • This position will work closely with other team members to provide Learning for Life students with appropriate and relevant learning opportunities through The Smith Family suite of programs in order to support their educational goals. Collaborative work with Program Coordinator colleagues helps to deliver key organisational objectives. • At times, this position will provide support in the maintenance and/or delivery of our suite of education-focussed programs and activities in periods of vacancies and or extended leave. Together, we work to maximise support for students and families. • As a learning organisation, we would expect the successful candidate to learn and embed the Family Practice Framework in their approach. At The Smith Family, coaching is a key framework to support learning and development.
