- Consulting with key stakeholders including family, supporters, friends and community
- Working within South Eastern suburbs and remotely (telehealth -as required)

We offer:

- Generous remuneration (above industry award wage)
- Dynamic role with flexible working hours and locations
- Commitment to ongoing professional development and learning
- Regular supervision and team gatherings
- An opportunity to genuinely make a long-lasting impact in someone's life

You must have:

- Ability to be self-motivated and work autonomously
- Strong verbal communication skills
- Ability to work with a variety of stakeholders from various background
- A deep commitment to and belief in all people with disability having a genuinely good life in community
- Good written communication skills and experience in planning and report writing
- Experience using Microsoft office packages
- Understanding of community and community development
- Experience in working with vulnerable people, particularly those living with a disability
- An understanding of, or willingness to learn about Social Role Valorisation, The National Disability Insurance Scheme, Customised Employment, Microbusinesses and Indiviudalised Living Arrangements
- ABN, insurance and satisfactory safety screening checks
- Drivers license and access to a roadworthy vehicle

It would be desirable for you to have:

- Relevant tertiary qualifications (Social Work, Disability Studies, Counselling, Allied Health)
- At least 3 years of relevant industry experience.

We'd love to hear from you!
