Job Description

- Join a leading respectful relationships education provider leading social change across Australia.
- As a program facilitator, you will deliver education programs in high schools and universities.
- Paid casual position. Roles available in both Melbourne & Sydney.

Why Consent Labs?

Do you want to make a positive impact on the education of future generations? If the answer is yes, then we want you here at Consent Labs.

Consent Labs is a leader in the consent education sector, having worked with over 225,000 high school students, tertiary students, parents and educators nationally to deliver evidence-based and engaging consent education with consistent and overwhelmingly positive results.

We look for passionate people who are seeking a hands-on role in a dynamic organisation. In turn, we promise you an inclusive workplace, championing diversity and flexible working practices. You can expect support and collaboration, plus the benefits of a young team and vibrant work environment.

About our Organisation

Our Mission
We are a not-for-profit organisation focused on prevention through education. Through delivering evidence-based, youth-led consent and respectful relationships education, we empower young people and their communities to actively change the culture around sexual violence.

Our Vision
A society where young people can safely engage in respectful relationships, and live in a world without sexual violence.

To be successful in this role, you'll need these essential requirements:

You'll need to:

- Have great facilitation and communication skills. Previous experience in public speaking is desirable;
- Enjoy working with young people;
- Have availability within school hours (8am-3:30pm, weekdays);
- Be a reliable team-member, who is responsive and punctual.

We expect that you:

- Ideal candidates would have 2-3 days available within schools hours (8am - 3:30pm, weekdays)
- Commit to the training provided to build your facilitation skills and knowledge around consent. This includes commitment to orientation (January/February 2027), training in the lead up to workshops and regular upskilling during school holiday periods;
- Take ongoing responsibility for your mental health before and after workshops, with the support of Consent Labs;
- Are engaged and responsive, including signing up to shifts in a timely manner.
- Hold, or are willing to gain a valid paid Working With Children Check.
- Ideal applicants would have access to a car and hold a valid drivers license.

How to Apply

Interested applicants should apply using the links below and send any further questions or expressions of interest to the email below. They will then receive further information on how to formally apply. Applications will be accepted until the 6th of December 2026.

Consent Labs is an equal opportunity employer. We encourage applications from candidates of all backgrounds and experiences. People from LGBTQIA+ communities, Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islanders and CALD backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply.
